

People's Academy for Community Engagement (PACE)

2013-14 Program

September 19, 2013

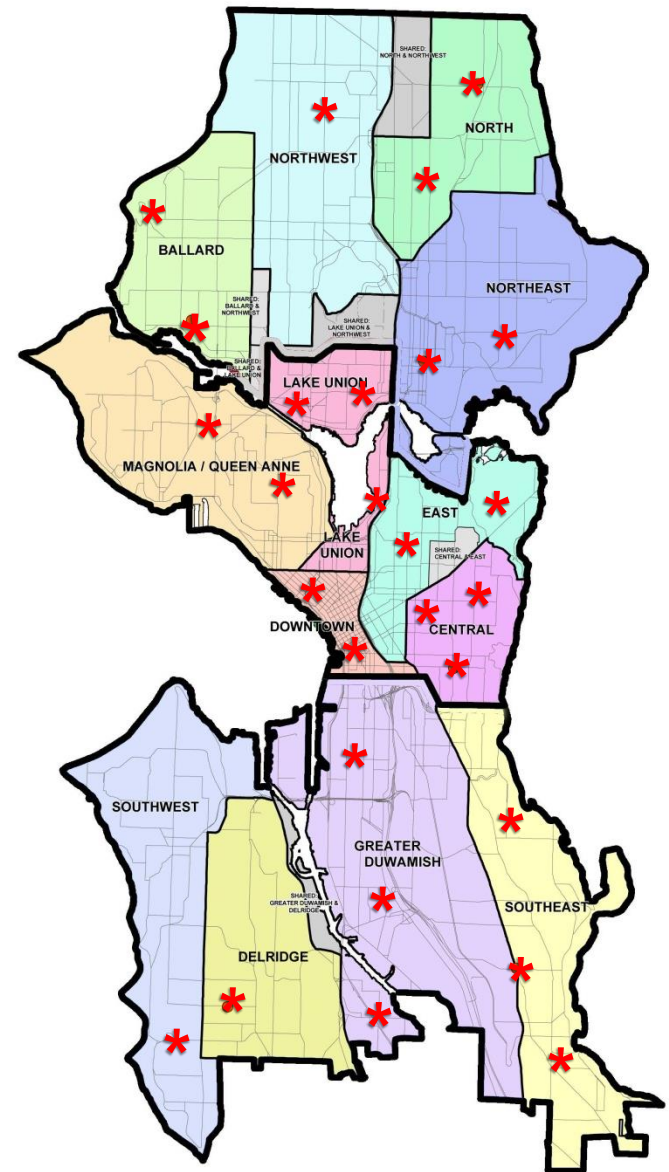

What is PACE?

A civic leadership development program that builds the skills of emerging community leaders

Who is PACE ?

- 27 PACE 2013 – 2014 participants *
- 18 Facilitators
- 9 Neighborhood District Coordinators
- 10 Advisory Board members
- 6 Community Project Sponsors

What's happening in the 2013-14

PACE ?

September 11	PACE Orientation
September 17	Session #1: Approaches to Leadership
October 15	Session #2: Accessing Government
November 19	Session #3: Community Organizing
December 17	Session #4: Inclusive Outreach and Public Engagement
January 21	Session #5: Meeting Facilitation
February 18	Session #6: Public Speaking
March 18	Session #7: Conflict Management
April 15	Session #8: Sustaining Involvement
May 20	PACE Graduation!

- Additionally, PACE will offer 2 or 3 seminars, open to the public, throughout the year

2013-14 PACE Community Projects

- 12 projects selected from 37 applications
- 6 of the 12 will be selected in October as 2013-14 Community Projects
- Participant Teams apply for Dept. of Neighborhoods Small Sparks awards and implement these Community Projects from November 2013- March 2014

2013-14 PACE Community Projects

Cheers to Chambers –
North Seattle Business Expo

Changing the PACE
in East Ballard

Cascade Conversations

Jackson JazzWalk

Beacon Hill Junction
Improvement Project

Georgetown Scavenger
Hunt Great Race

Little Brook
Neighbors MeetUp

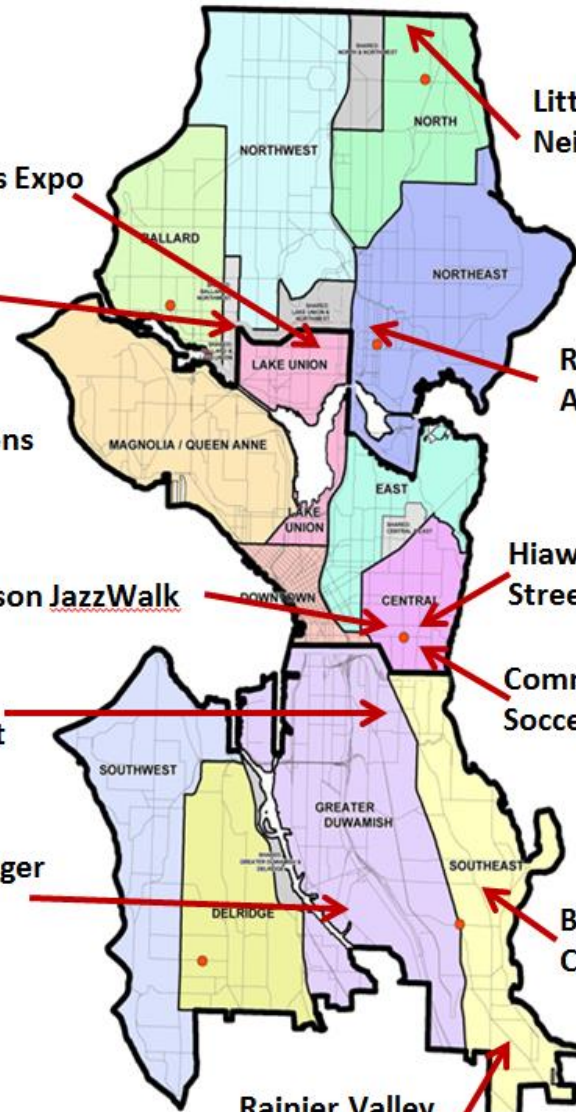

Roosevelt Neighbors'
Alliance SNAP Start

Hiawatha & Dearborn
Street Mural

Community Street
Soccer Tournament

Building Multicultural
Community in Rainier Vista

Rainier Valley
Greenways Outreach

2012 PACE Impacts:

Participant Survey Results:

- 82% - Learned to work effectively in a group to effect positive change
- 78% - Created innovative solutions for improving their neighborhood
- 87% - Learned how to plan events and run a meeting
- 82% - Demonstrated understanding of Inclusive Outreach and Public Engagement

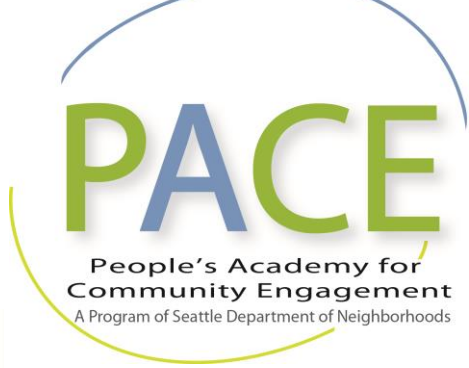

2012

PACE

Alumni Highlights

- Lauren Balter is now vice president of the Queen Anne/Magnolia District Council
- Nafiso Samatar delivered a presentation about PACE and the POEL program at the 2013 NUSA Conference
- Phillip Duggan has been selected to join the Get Engaged program this year.
- Diana Bohn has taken on a campaign manager role for King County District #1 elections
- Annette Heide-Jessen has joined the North Seattle Chamber of Commerce Board
- Aaron Hayden, Kim Camara, and Diana Bohn have joined the PACE Advisory Board
- Analia Bertoni is spearheading the ELLA project (Empowering Latina Leaders to Action)

WOULD LIKE TO THANK ITS PARTNERS!

“Through the PACE program I was able to become part of the Citywide Review Team for approving Large Project grants in the City of Seattle. This has been a great leadership experience. I have learned so much and I am using the tools that have been given to me to be more effective in my community.” ~ 2012 PACE Graduate

